Joanna Nadeau
Audubon International
Associate Director of Environmental Programs

Guest speaker, Joanna Nadeau, will present the Audubon Sustainable Communities Program, an international program that helps communities take steps to ensure that they are healthy and vibrant places in which to live, work, and play—both today and tomorrow. Joanna will also discuss some of the very successful Audubon sustainable tourism programs such as the Green Lodging Program and Cooperative Sanctuary for Golf Courses, as well as environmental programs for landowners or land associations.
