

Gray Ratsnake Recovery Workshop

Come learn how to help the Frontenac Axis population of Gray Ratsnake Recover and be part of the solution

Saturday August 9th

9:00am to 12:30pm

Queen's University Biological Station
280 Queen's University Road
RR #1, Elgin, Ontario K0G 1E0

Organized By:

Leeds Grenville Stewardship Council

Supported By:

QUBS , OMNR, FABR

Featuring - Dr. Patrick Weatherhead

Professor Emeritus, University of Illinois and member Gray Ratsnake Recovery team

- Learn how landowners can help the gray rat snake recover
- Overview of LGSC successful nesting box program
- Demonstration on how to build and fill your own nesting box

Registration: $10 workshop fee

Register by July 31st by emailing lgstewardship@gmail.com

For more details go to www.lgstewardship.ca

