

The Frontenac Stewardship Foundation &
Queen's University Biological Station present the Invasive Species Community Seminar
Saturday, August 29: 9 am – 3:30 pm
as part of our 2015 Seminar Series

Provincial leaders and Queen's University representatives share current policy, research and on-the-ground practices to combat invasive species, using case studies that emphasize local threats. Outdoor tour and active management demonstration included!

Elbow Lake

Dog-strangling Vine, A. Kirkpatrick

Elbow Lake Environmental Education Centre
Perth Road Village,
South Frontenac Township

Free admission!

Registration recommended by August 21

Contact carolyn.bonta@queensu.ca or phone 613-353-7968

